SPI Leader CyberOptics Appoints Maxim SMT as Representative in India

MINNEAPOLIS — February 2010 — CyberOptics Corporation (Nasdaq: CYBE) has appointed one of India's leading sales representative firms, Maxim SMT Technologies Pvt Ltd., as its new representative in India.

Maxim SMT is a dynamic company that specializes in equipment supply and service to the electronics manufacturing industry. Maxim SMT helps customers in all aspects of high-technology solutions, covers pre-sales counseling, post-sales equipment services and turnkey projects. Maxim SMT is headquartered in New Delhi (NCR Region) and is supported by branch offices in Chennai, Bangalore and Pune.

“I am pleased that CyberOptics can be represented by such a customer-focused and proactive sales organization. I think we are joining forces at just the right time as the global market situation improves. Being a customer-focused organization, Maxim SMT has a strong engineering support team, which is useful in demonstrating all the benefits of CyberOptics' leading SPI and AOI technologies to the customer base,” said Dennis Rutherford, VP of Sales at CyberOptics. “Alok and I are excited about the synergy between our companies. CyberOptics offers quality solder paste inspection and AOI solutions and services globally. Together, with a world-class support network, we expect improved yields and profitability for our customers.”
